

NOTICE OF DELINQUENT RENEWAL

LICENSE NUMBER
8N46567

Registration or Certification of Planned Nonoperation (PNO) and late payment are due. Our records show that you have not renewed the vehicle's registration or filed a PNO with the $27 filing fee. California law requires all vehicle owners to register or, if the vehicle is not being operated, parked or towed upon a street or highway, to place a nonoperation status on file before the vehicle's registration expiration date. A PNO may be filed with a payment of a late filing fee, up to ninety days after the vehicle expiration date. After ninety days, a PNO cannot be filed.

To file Planned Nonoperational (PNO) status

- * Determine PNO eligibility. Vehicle has not been operated (driven, moved, or parked on a street or highway) after the registration expiration date of 11/30/2025.
- * If eligible, check the PNO box and pay the PNO amount due. Note: PNO is valid until the vehicle is operated.

To Renew the vehicle registration

- * Pay the renewal amount due on the bottom portion of this notice.
- * Smog Certification is required. See reverse side of notice.

RENEWAL or PNO online, by kiosk or phone (1-800-777-0133) is an option available to you.

- * Your Renewal Identification Number is 186190.
- * DMV's Internet address is WWW.DMV.CA.GOV

OR Return by MAIL.
